TESTIMONIALS

Lynn Baker took me on as one of her trainees under her executive coaching programme. I have had public speaking engagements over the years, but I felt that I needed to do undergo professional executive coaching in order to 'up my game' and crystallise on my key note address.

Being an executive in a multinational corporate world, I needed someone who would understand the dynamics of such an environment as well as have the candid experience of having successfully coached similar individuals. Lynn and her executive professional speaking programme embodies all these attributes.

I am greatly indebted to Lynn for taking the time to equip me and I am already seeing the impact of her coaching from the positive feedback I get from speaking engagements I have had subsequently. The quality of coaching I received from Lynn exceeded my expectations and was of an international standard. I would recommend Lynn any day.

Lynn you are more than a 'star', you make 'stars'.

I found Lynn's advice on my keynote invaluable. She was able to look at it with the eyes of my future audience and give me really constructive ideas about how to make it better, to engage their minds and hearts and souls. She was able to become part of my design process and really got under the skin of the content. And throughout she was encouraging, positive and brought wonderful energy to our discussions. I will definitely get her input occasionally going forward as I develop new material.

Lynn has worked with Emira Property Fund for 5 years, helping and coaching our Executive Team on our interim and final results investor presentations. The work she has done with us has been and continues to be invaluable, coaching and preparing us for our presentations. She is a highly skilled speaker herself and her advice and her advice and practical guidance make a meaningful difference in ensuring that our presentations are professional and to the point. In fact in 2017, Emira won the Investment Analysts Society award for the best presentation.

I highly recommend Lynn in the role of Executive Speaker Coach.

"I could not have created my keynote without Lynn's expert advice, guidance and coaching.

DANNY K - Professional Singer & Entertainer - August 2016

Dear Lynn,

When I came to you with my original speech, it was merely the story of my horrific experience of being jailed in Zimbabwe for 10 years for a crime I did not commit.

After your sound advice and professional coaching, it is now a powerful, flowing and gripping keynote speech that skillfully shares the horrendous encounter of my ordeal and expertly highlights the deep life-lessons that I learned from it. Over and above that, I want to thank you for the emotional and striking visuals that you selected for my slides.

Your insight and vision of what this keynote could be, is nothing but remarkable. I can never thank you enough for the contribution you have made to the incredible dream I'm now living as a Professional Speaker.

My gratitude is immeasurable. Thank you, Lynn, with all my heart.

“Lynn’s guidance was critical in my delivering a positive message to our clients as well as to all South African’s.

Lynn has those key attributes of quickly understanding a company’s campaign message, of structuring words so that they flow easily and then to ensure that the message is captivating.

Myself and Regent Insurance highly recommend Lynn Baker.”
